MALACCA: For the fifth consecutive year, Philea Resort and Spa of Ayer Keroh, Malacca shared the joy of Ramadan by distributing free bubur lambuk to the public

About 100 resort staff prepared the traditional bubur lambuk, a must have delicacy during the fasting month.

It was distributed to those visiting the resort, recently.

The bubur lambuk ala Philea Resort and Spa is much looked forward to every year.

The resort's manager Lim Beng Weh said the bubur lambuk giveaway was part of the its Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) programme.

He said the objective was to "express our appreciation and strengthen the relationship between us and the local community as well as to mark the holy month of Ramadan."

Lim said the delicacy was prepared by the culinary team led by executive sous chef, Fezerin Senafi.

A total of 400kg of rice, 10kg of dried shrimp, 20kg of cashew nuts, 50kg chicken and 50kg of beef went into the porridge.

The resort also gave 400 packets of bubur lambuk to underprivileged communities including Rumah Seri Kenangan Cheng, Kompleks Rumah Anak Yatim Fatimah Al-Zaharah and Rumah Budak Laki-Laki Tun Abdul Aziz.

The event was also witnessed by State Legislative Assembly speaker Datuk Wira Othman Muhamad, Tourism Malaysia Malacca director Jeffri Munir and Malacca Tourism Promotion Division general Manager Abdul Kadir Md Idris.

The resort is also featuring a classically themed buka puasa buffet during Ramadan.

Guests will be spoilt for choice with a generous spread of dishes and cuisine from the 14 states that make up Malaysia.

The buffet is priced at RM75++ per person and RM45++ per child.
